

Tara Platt

Tara Platt lives in Los Angeles where she writes, produces and acts. In 2004, Tara launched Monkey Kingdom Productions, an independent film company, with business partner and husband, Yuri Lowenthal. MKP's first feature film, TUMBLING AFTER, is due out in the spring of 2009. She and Lowenthal currently have five feature scripts and are co-authoring a book on voice over.

Tara has performed onstage internationally including the Edinburgh Fringe Festival. Her body of work ranges from Shakespearean classics to world premieres, in addition to working in film, television, animation, web-series, pod-casts and making guest appearances at conventions around the globe.

A philanthropist at heart, Tara raises money for the charities she supports (Susan G Komen Breast Cancer Research and Project (RED)) and practices yoga. A student of life, Tara is a certified Feng Shui consultant through the Shambhalla West Coast Institute, as well as a Certified Master Hypnotherapist, NLP Practitioner and Therapeutic Imagery Facilitator thru the Hypnosis Motivation Institute. She holds a BFA in theatre from Rutgers University's Mason Gross School of the Arts and the London Academy of Theatre.
